

IMMIGRATION ISSUES FOR CHILDREN IN JUVENILE COURT

LECTURE SERIES 2009

An all-day seminar led by UCLA Law Faculty Kristen Jackson addressing immigration issues for children in abuse/neglect cases, including Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS) and other federal measures of relief

The training will cover:

- ❖ The structure of the federal immigration system
- ❖ Types of immigration statuses for youth
- ❖ Immigration relief available to youth with a focus on Special Immigrant Juvenile Status and U Visas
- ❖ The immigration consequences of juvenile delinquency dispositions, including immigration holds and federal removal procedures
- ❖ Current development in immigration law relating to children
- ❖ National resources for practitioners

JUNE 10, 2009

NORFOLK

Holiday Inn Express
920 South 20th Street

JUNE 11, 2009

LEXINGTON

Holiday Inn Express
2605 Plum Creek Parkway

All individuals with a stake in the child welfare court system or involved in immigration issues with children are invited to attend.

Attendance will satisfy credit requirements for 2009 for Supreme Court Advanced GAL training

You must register to attend. A light breakfast and lunch will be provided. There is no cost to attend but registration will close when limits are reached.

Registration and more information is available at www.throughtheeyes.org.