*Before credit will be given for any advanced training you MUST complete Basic Training.

*Advanced Training is to be completed in the years following basic training, and fulfills training requirements for the following year. For example, If you completed basic training in 2007 you're appointment eligible for all of 2008. If you completed advanced training in 2008 you're eligible for all of 2009. If you complete advanced training in 2009 you'll be eligible for all of 2010.

You may also complete advanced training during the year you wish to receive credit for. For example, if you're not currently eligible you can do advanced training in 2009 to become eligible for 2009.

* While we encourage you to attend more then one training session with in a year, only the date of the first training will be recorded as it is ALL that is required of you.

* If an 'X' appears under the advanced training column it implies that the GAL completed basic training in that year and that additional advanced training isn't required until the following year.
